

HELLENIC GENOCIDE FORUM

«After political recognition comes the difficult task»

Keynote speaker: Dr Panayiotis Diamadis, Vice-President of the Australian Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies

Sunday 15 May 2016 from 4pm

Venue: Central Pontian Community of Melbourne, 345 Victoria St, Brunswick

Hosted by the Coordinating Committee of Pontian Associations

After recognition, what next?

The Coordinating Committee of Pontian Associations of Melbourne for the Commemoration of the Genocide of the Greeks of Pontos are organising an open forum on future directions of the issue of the Genocide of the Hellenes.

What constitutes 'recognition'? Political, academic, ...

What role should Australia be playing?

What should the Australian Hellenic community demand?

Join us as genocide scholar Dr Panayiotis Diamadis leads a conversation future directions in the quest for justice for the victims of Genocide of the Hellenes 1914-1924.